MEMPHIS SWINE TRIUMPH IN THE LONE STAR STATE

The Durco Jersey swine show at the Texas state fair in Dallas was the scene of further triumphs for the get of Tom G. James' $30,000 boar Salsora, of Pine Crest farm, Miss., so near Memphis that this section claims him. Salsora was judged the grand champion sow of the show and this was also first senior earling. Salsora's sows were first, second, third and fourth in the junior sow class, being very significant places. Salsora was placed by the Texas fair, just as Morton, judge at the Tri-State fair, placed them. Morton is considered the best judge of Durco Jersey swine and Loevey, while primarily a Berkshire man, the best all around judge.

Salsora's under-year sows were first, third and fourth in their class. Under-year sows were placed first, second, third and fourth. A Salsora sow took second in the aged-sow class, but her real aged stock of Salsora's got was shown by Pine Crest, as the boar is too young to have much get in the aged classes.

A Salsora herd was first and second in the young herd class, and first and second in herd bred-by-exhibitor.

No Salsora sows were shown by Pine Crest, but in the junior class a Salsora boar took second place, another first in the under-year class and others second and third in the under-year class. Mr. James sold these last two under-year sows for $1,000 apiece to a Texas Durco swine breeder. The boar which took second in the junior class in Texas was the one which Morton placed first at the Tri-State fair in Memphis.

Pine Crest also entered the senior sow which took first in her class, though she was not a Salsora. She is the same sow which scored first in Memphis. James, who stopped over in Memphis Friday en route home from Texas, said the Durco show there was equally as high class as the one at Memphis, the best "up country" and Southern herds being in competition. He was describing very enthusiastic memories of the handsome boar. The Durco swine show was held. This barn was of concrete and steel construction. The floor was concrete and every inch was provided with drain pipes and troughs with running water connected. The partitions of the pens were of concrete and the entire building was of concrete and steel. "All the other buildings on the grounds were of fireproof construction and excellent handiwork," said Mr. James, "I wish the Tri-State fair could afford such buildings."

Mr. James will make the next exhibition of his Durco at the Mississippi state fair in Jackson, and then will go to the International Live Stock show in Chicago.

The stores of Claudius Gibson and of C. H. Winter were burned. In addition to these, one vacant store burned, the total loss being about $25,000. Pritchard Puzzled On Class Of Oil In Ponca Field

At last William G. Pritchard, plantation owner and capitalist, of Seppel, Ark., has found a place which he will admit is clear out of the class of his home town. True, the city in question no longer enjoys the "rapid" reputation it did in the bygone days, and that's probably the reason "Bill" admits its superiority.

The place is Ponca City, Okla., and "Bill" has just returned from a visit there. He took some of his many Arkansas dollars and invested them in the Tom James Oil company (no stock in which is now for sale). "Bill's" description of Ponca in the old days is a wonder.

"Town?" says Bill. "Say, that was some place when it was good, in the days of the wild and woolly. And will you believe me when I tell you that they had 22 saloons? Yes, sir, that's a fact. Even the mosquitoes brush out there sprung into being with a thirp. The thing that puzzles me, though, is why the oil we've struck there is petroleum. It seems to me that, in view of past performance, it should be fuel oil."

RED CROSS WILL HOLD ELECTION

The annual election of officers and board of directors of the Memphis chapter, American Red Cross and the transaction of other business, will take place at Red Cross headquarters, 140 Court avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Members are urged to attend as 50 are necessary to conduct an election according to the chapter's by-laws.

Many of the departments of the Red Cross are necessarily inactive since the close of the war, but this great organization remains intact ready for any emergency as disaster, relief, and that of epidemics which might befall this country, and further, to carry on its peace-time program by its construction since in the rehabilitation of the returned service men and members of his family. This latter is supervised by the home service section.

SENATOBIA IS TO HAVE SEWERAGE SYSTEM

SENATOBIA, Miss., Oct. 11. (Sp.)—The citizens of Senatobia will vote on an additional $11,500 bond issue, the board of aldermen having passed the order at the meeting.

Many of the departments of the Red Cross are necessarily inactive since the close of the war, but this great organization remains intact ready for any emergency as disaster, relief, and that of epidemics which might befall this country, and further, to carry on its peace-time program by its construction since in the rehabilitation of the returned service men and members of his family. This latter is supervised by the home service section.

It is believed that there will be no objection to the issuance of a sewerage system Senatobia will have all the conveniences of a city. A large engine has been purchased for the electric light system, and when it is installed Coldwater will be supplied with lights from here.

ITALY AGREES TO PLAN FOR FUME Creation of Buffer State With Italian Rights Protected Latest Offer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Information has reached Washington that the Italian government has agreed to the creation of a buffer state, comprising Fiume and the adjacent coastal territory southward to Breccia, as a solution of the Adriatic problem.

The approval of the plan is conditional on the protection of Italian interests in the Italian methods of legal procedure and the confirmation of Italy's title to the former district of Fiume in the interior and along the coast to the westward. This is regarded by the Italians as absolutely necessary as a strategic military measure to insure the safety of Pola and other Italian Adriatic cities.

The Italian government, the information here is, has decided to go thus far to meet the demands of President Wilson, on whom the British and French governments placed the responsibility of the first plan for an Italian buffer state is said to have been broached by the president, so that if Italy is now willing to accept the conditions which Italy has tacitly agreed to, it is believed a final satisfactory settlement of the issue can be secured.

D'Annunzio is believed in official circles here to be willing to yield his own judgment and retire from command at Fiume in favor of a representative of the entente powers, provided this be an Italian and if the citizens of Fiume themselves desire him to do so. That they would make such a request through their town council is assured if the condition is met, that they be recognized as an independent state particularly if the D'Annunzio forces now in possession of the city be replaced at first at least by regular Italian troops.

ILLINOIS MAN GROWS PECANS IN YAZOO

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Oct. 11. (Sp.)—Dr. George W. Whitfield, of Evans, Ill., for some eight years interested in the ownership of a plantation in Yazoo county, has just come into being on his plantation 40 acres of the best young pecan trees in Mississippi. Samples of the pecans have been brought to the Commercial club rooms in Yazoo City from his Happy Hollow orchard at Benton, Miss., and they are exceptionally large and of good flavor.

With the doctor the plantation is more or less of an experiment. He is a frequent visitor in Yazoo county and is intensely interested in the future of the section, particularly of the delta. He maintains a local manager and the pecan grove is by no means the extent of his farming and planting operations in Mississippi.

Quicker Selection Of Jury Probable In Jno. Frey Case

The case of the State of Tennessee vs. John Frey, charged with criminal assault, is expected to be completed in much shorter space of time than it took to try Allen McNamara, who also will defend Frey, will not put up the fight against venemmen that he did in the McNamara case, where his questioning and the fixed opinions of the venemmen consumed 14 days before a jury could be obtained.

Mr. Davis made the offer Friday to the court that the judge select 12 intelligent men and place them in the jury box. His client, Mr. Davis said, would waive his preemptory challenges. This judge Richards refused to do, holding that the regular panel could furnish 12 intelligent men if Mr. Davis was inclined to take them. Mr. Davis stated, however, that he would renew his motion on Monday morning, when the case is called for trial and the defendant is in court.

YAZOO COUNTY BEAT SELLS ROAD BONDS

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Oct. 11. (Sp.)—One hundred and fifty thousand dollars in road bonds for beat 2 in Yazoo county went to John Newven & Co., of Chicago, Friday at par, with 10 per cent accrued interest and $1 premium. The bonds are to be dated July 1, 1937, and bear interest until the money is delivered for use on beat 2's road.

Two of the three local banks—the Citizens Bank and Trust company and the Delta Bank and Trust company—were bidders for the bonds in competition with an unusually large number of other bidders, among whom were Wells & Co. and Caldwell & Co., of Nashville, Tenn.; Pruden & Co. of Toledo, O.; I. B. Foggart & Co., of Jackson, Tenn.; Walter Schroeder and Wm. R. Compton, of New Orleans; John Newven & Co., of Chicago; Bank of Commerce, of Memphis, and Stacy-Brown, of Toledo.

Beat 2 is in the last of the beats of Yazoo county to go to work on its roads through the medium of a bond issue and a comprehensive program of road improvement. Work is to be begun as soon as possible in that beat; now that the bonds have been sold, and the roads of that beat will be speedily completed.

GREAT BELIEVER IN BLACK-DRAUGHT

Oklahoma Lady Tells How Her Husband Believes in Black-Draught and Uses It for Many Ailments.

Nowata, Okla.—Mrs. W. B. Dawkins, a resident of this place, says: "My husband is a great believer in Black-Draught and thinks it cures everything. It is splendid for malaria, headache, constipation (which usually causes headache), indigestion, or any kind of stomach trouble, and we just keep for these troubles. I don't know what we haven't tried it, and we always find it satisfactory."

I know it has done us both a lot of good and saved us many dollars. I use it in teaspoon doses at first as follow with small doses, and it does make a person feel like new. It cleanses the liver better than any other liver tonic I have ever used, as after taking a thorough course nature asserts itself and you are not left a constipated condition that follows lot of other active medicines. This one thing I like especially about it. For over 10 years Theodor's Black-Draught has been in use for many ailments and today is a recognized standard remedy in thousands of family medicine chests. It will pay you to keep Black-Draught in the house to use when needed. Your druggist sells it."
